

more thoroughly to what the aim or goal is, otherwise everyone is in a limbo, and the movement I'm showing them has no meaning and the whole thing doesn't make any sense^{to} anyone except me.

When I see you in May I'll explain it so there is no misinterpretation or what I'm trying to show you. In the meantime think on this and have fun with it.

Please convey to Carla, that I missed that bread she provided me each morning, while I enjoyed your wonderful hospitality.

Graham, Jeff, Joe and every one send their best; and looking forward to sunshine in Leiden in May.

Love
Henry
